While studying under Felix Mendelssohn as a boy, Joachim took up the Beethoven Violin Concerto and his performance, at age 12, caused such a sensation that he effectively restored the forgotten piece to the repertoire. He lives simply, rejecting the traditional papal apartments to live in a small community inside a Vatican guest house.

Honestly, I hope that someone gives the author some serious lessons in writing.

I am praying this will not be my church, but if I am truly honest, I think it will be. Embed this content in your HTML.
